

Martine à New York

These shops are beloved by locals and visitors alike for their creativity, quality, and dedication to the art of doughnut-making. Enjoy your doughnut adventure! 🍩

Dough (Brooklyn)

- Known for their oversized, fluffy, and artisanal doughnuts with unique flavors like hibiscus, passionfruit, and dulce de leche.
- 2. Peter Pan Donut & Pastry Shop (Brooklyn)
  - A classic Greenpoint spot serving fresh, old-school doughnuts and pastries since 1953.
- 3. The Doughnut Project (West Village)
  - Famous for their inventive flavors like the "Everything Doughnut" (inspired by an everything bagel) and seasonal specials.
- 4. Dun-Well Doughnuts (East Village & Brooklyn)
  - A vegan doughnut shop offering a wide variety of flavors, from classic glazed to creative options like peanut butter and jelly.
- 5. Fan-Fan Doughnuts (Bed-Stuy, Brooklyn)
  - A French-inspired doughnut shop with beautifully crafted, light, and airy doughnuts in flavors like yuzu and matcha.

6. Moe's Doughs (Lower East Side)
  - A small-batch doughnut shop with rotating flavors, including vegan and gluten-free options.
7. Underwest Donuts (Hell's Kitchen & Williamsburg, Brooklyn)
  - Located in a car wash, this shop offers high-quality cake and yeast doughnuts with creative toppings.
8. Donut Pub (Chelsea)
  - A 24-hour spot serving classic and creative doughnuts, including their famous cronuts and seasonal specials.
9. Daily Provisions (Multiple Locations)
  - Known for their cruller-style doughnuts, which are light, crispy, and perfectly glazed.
10. Supermoon Bakehouse (Lower East Side)
  - While primarily a bakery, they offer incredible, over-the-top doughnuts with unique fillings and toppings.

These shops are beloved by locals and visitors alike for their creativity, quality, and dedication to the art of doughnut-making. Enjoy your doughnut adventure! 🍩

These spots are known for their delicious, creative, and high-quality doughnuts: